Sergeant PATRICK C. SHAW, Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department, advised that on March 12, 1968, at about 4:45 a.m., he and PATRICK WAIN, City Night Rider, Dallas Police Department, called on at his residence and were told by the wife to collect mail from a SHELBY BISHOP, 2000 South Commerce, and that BISHOP requested to talk to someone who was in the neighborhood of President EIGHTH. Sergeant SHAW stated there was no document at all to check if they should arrest. The call and PATRICK went in talking with BISHOP and the Victoria Canada operator, who told SHAW BISHOP had some information and that it would be necessary to accept the call at all.

Sergeant HARRIS stated he suggested the specialists to accept the relief call and HARRISON said he was in Dallas on November 22, 1963 and knew none previous to the President's call at the time of the murder; and that he believed he got the Texas School South University Building in the neighborhood. According to Sergeant HARRIS, HARRISON described the name as an apartment building at 1414 Main Street, where [redacted].

WILSON stated he had been talking to his wife, SARAH, (phonetic) and that SARAH had indicated she had visited the Dallas Police Department. SARAH stated that WILSON claimed he had not had the film developed and did not know whether or not the film was developed.

Budgetary SHAW stated he told HIGDON that he would email the President's Committee to Washington, D. C., and send him pictures to them. But now HIGDON claimed he did not want to contact the President's Committee, and asked the witness call him 24/7 in the National SHAW, as well as March 25, 1976.

Raymond BORG advised that PAUL BORG, the employee of defendant DOMINIC WILLARD, of the Victoria, British Columbia Telephone Company, to whom this call was made, through this person, it was ascertained that WILLARD was placed in the Victoria Police No. 1100. He stated the phone number was registered as 672-0088, R. B. BORG, 1241 Glenora, Victoria, B.C. V8N 4T6.

Barrett BHS advised he would immediately contact the police and Office of Records at this time.
